

OBJECTIVES OF THOMAS

You are the witness Thomas, a young police officer, present at the scene when Ed confessed his crimes and the subsequent discovery of David's body underneath the floorboards.

Despite your job in the police force, you must remain impartial during the hearing and only present what information you know.

The contents of your testimony is entirely up to you, however, try to stick as close to the text as possible when possible.

It might also be a good idea to prepare your testimony and develop your character before the actual hearing.

If the jury finds your testimony and character to be false they are likely to discard it during their final debate and verdict of the case.
